Waukesha Lodge Raises Four Additional Master Masons in June

(Waukesha, WI) – Waukesha Masonic Lodge #37 is pleased to announce the raising of four more Master Masons during two special degree nights held in June. Brothers Shane Beecraft and Matt Kallin were raised on June 22nd and brothers Brian Renzelman and Jeff Rendall on June 29th. This brings the total to nine new Master Masons for Waukesha Lodge since January 2006.

In addition to performing four Master Mason degrees in late June, the Lodge also initiated four Entered Apprentices on June 8th. “The Lodge is on schedule to well exceed its original goal of twelve new members for the year,” according to Worshipful Master Gary Ebert. “Good promotions, excellent degree work and just plain hard work by the fellow brethren of the Lodge have contributed to our continued growth. We’re very, very excited to have all these fine new brothers join our lodge,” added Ebert.

Built in 1905 and located at 317 South St. in downtown Waukesha, the Waukesha Masonic Lodge has been designated a local landmark by the Waukesha Landmarks Commission, because of the building's architectural and historical significance. Tours are available by request.

The mission of Freemasonry in Wisconsin is to teach and demonstrate a fraternal way of life that promotes brotherhood and self improvement through education, moral standards, charity, and community involvement. Freemasons, in addition to raising money for various charities, also provide scholarships to local high school students and support many other causes. Wisconsin Masonic Charities support a wide range of causes and provide donors with numerous opportunities for personal involvement, serving thousands of individuals each year through programs that support Masonic relief, gifts of education, community health and safety, and youth activities. The Three Pillars retirement home, located in Dousman, was formerly known as The Masonic Home and is also supported by the Masonic Order.
